Astra UI - Terms of Service

Effective Date: April 11, 2025

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern your access to and use of Astra UI, an open-source user interface (UI) library for React applications. By downloading, installing, or using Astra UI ("the Library"), you agree to comply with and be legally bound by these Terms. If you do not agree with these Terms, you are prohibited from using the Library.

1. Acceptance of Terms

By accessing, downloading, or using Astra UI, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree to these Terms, do not use the Library.

2. License

Astra UI is distributed under the [Insert License Type, e.g., MIT License]. You are granted a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to use, modify, and distribute the Library in accordance with the terms of the applicable license. All rights not expressly granted by these Terms are reserved by the owner.

3. Usage Rights and Restrictions

You are authorized to:

- Use Astra UI for personal, commercial, or educational purposes.
- Modify, distribute, and create derivative works of the Library, provided that you comply with the terms of the applicable open-source license.

You may not:

- Use Astra UI in any way that violates applicable laws or infringes on intellectual property rights.
- Resell, sublicense, or distribute Astra UI as a standalone product or service without modification.
- Reverse engineer or attempt to extract the source code of Astra UI except as permitted by the open-source license.

4. Contributions

Astra UI is a collaborative open-source project, and contributions are encouraged. By submitting contributions (e.g., code, bug reports, documentation), you grant the project maintainers the right to use, modify, and distribute your contributions under the same open-source license. All contributions must comply with the project's contribution guidelines, available in the repository.

5. No Warranty

Astra UI is provided "as is," without warranty of any kind, either express or implied, including but not limited to warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement. The developers and maintainers of Astra UI do not guarantee that the Library will be error-free, secure, or meet your specific requirements.

6. Limitation of Liability

In no event shall the developers or maintainers of Astra UI be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, including but not limited to loss of data, loss of profits, or business interruption, arising out of your use of the Library, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.

7. Support and Updates

Astra UI is an open-source project, and formal support is not provided. Updates, bug fixes, and new releases will be made available at the discretion of the project maintainers. You are encouraged to check the project repository for updates or to submit issues and pull requests.

8. Termination

We reserve the right to suspend or terminate your access to Astra UI if you violate these Terms. Upon termination, you must immediately cease using Astra UI and remove all copies of the Library from your systems.

9. Modifications to Terms

The developers of Astra UI reserve the right to modify these Terms at any time. Any changes will be posted on the official website or repository, and your continued use of Astra UI will constitute acceptance of the modified Terms.

10. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of [Your Jurisdiction], without regard to its conflict of law provisions. Any disputes arising out of or related to these Terms shall be resolved in the courts located in [Your Jurisdiction].
